DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-4 and 19-28, drawn to a flow meter, classified in class 73, subclass 861.355.
 - II. Claims 5-18, 29-44 and 45-54, drawn to a method of manufacturing a flow meter, classified in class 156, subclass 293.
 - III. Claims 55-64, drawn to a method of manufacturing a flow meter, classified in class 156, subclass 293.
 - IV. Claims 65-69, drawn to a method of manufacturing flow tubes, classified in class 264, subclass 176.1.
 - V. Claims 70-73, drawn to a method of testing a flow meter, classified in class 73, subclass 861.355.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
 - A. Inventions I, II, III, IV and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated because: the flow meter of Group I could be made by a method other than the method of Groups II, III or IV; the method of Group V could be used to test flow meters other than those of Groups I-IV; Group I is unrelated to Group V because they perform different functions and require a different search.

B. Inventions I, II, III and IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the flow meter could use a flow tube made by another method. The subcombination has separate utility such as fluid transmission.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
